

g. their intention of assaulting De-

He escaped through a back door, was chased up Main street by a mob, reached his hotel safely. The mob dispersed till nearly midnight, still threatening to watch Davenport's departure from the city.

FOREIGN NEWS.

PARIS, April 6th.—Advices from Tonquin report that the expedition to Hunghoa is started. The troops are massed at Sont. General De Lisle's column will operate on the left bank of Black river, and General Griegier's column on the right bank. It is reported that Lionveloc will command the advance on Hunghoa, where there are assembled 3,000 Black Flags and 12,000 Chinese troops. Serious resistance is expected.

The Egyptian Situation.

jected to revolt. It is feared that Bert Dongola will be invested in a shu
e. Nothing has been heard from Ge Gordon for a fortnight.

PACIFIC COAST DISPATCHES.

PAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION

CALIFORNIA.

...drowned. Attention was first called to the drowning by the discovery of the stained clothes in a bath-room. The water was drained off and the body was recovered and remains to be identified.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6th.—While blasting for a new section of the sea wall at the wharves weighing three tons were hurled many blocks away by an unusually heavy east. Two buildings were damaged and an seriously hurt.

The State Central Club of the Anti-nepoly Democracy adopted a resolution today, charging a falsification of the legislative records, and instructing a committee to cause conviction. Another resolution Accident at the Cliff House.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6th.—This afternoon, while a party of twenty were on a suspension bridge between the Cliff House and one of the Seal Rocks, a lady became frightened and screamed, and a party of boys in sport began swaying the bridge.

Verdict for Ninety Thousand Dollars
MERCED, April 6th.—In the suit of J. J. Merced, plaintiff, against Charles Goodwin and the Merced and Pacific Coast Railroad Company, the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff for the sum of ninety thousand dollars.

jury to comply with a contract to sell a leased town property, the jury returned a verdict for ninety thousand dollars. The case had occupied the Superior Court five days, and was given to the jury at seven o'clock last night. At 11:45, the jury returned their verdict. A motion for a new trial will be made, and an appeal taken in case it shall be denied.

Proposed New School-house.
TULARE, April 6th.—In the election yesterday to vote $20,000 in bonds to erect a new school-house, 164 votes were cast, 100 votes in favor of the bonds.

Tragic Accident—The Longer Way Round the Shorter.
YREKA, April 6th.—Mr. and Mrs. P. [Name obscured] were the victims of their horse, which was thrown overboard from the

Some of our merchants are getting goods from Portland and from San Francisco at Portland, saving time and cost.

noon, and was the largest ever witnessed here, the people attending for a distance of twenty miles.

UTAH.

The Mormon Church.

SALT LAKE, April 6th.—The Mormon conference closed to-day. Bishop R.

Rich, deceased. The discourses were a line of sustaining polygamy, obeying priesthood and paying tithing. President Taylor said the tithing receipts were on the increase, but declined to say how much they amount to. The statistics showed that there are 132,705 Mormons

As between Utah and Colorado, As between Utah and Colorado, there are probably 5,000 in the latter. John Taylor submitted the question whether they should help George Q. Cannon's irrigation and water scheme out of the Church funds, and all voted aye; whereupon he told them he submitted it just to stir them. He had already helped the scheme out by the Church funds. C.

He said the faithful ought to wear home-made clothes, and not spend so much on imported goods. They should aid the woolen mills by taking stock in them, and wearing the cloth. He said if he lived in the country he would wear home-made goods altogether, but he could not do so in the city. He also urged them to buy home-made excelled, and Zion's shoe store (in which he owns considerable stock) makes the best boots and shoes, and other articles that people want to buy. Apostle Brigham Young warned the people that they could not keep their money at home by trading among themselves exclusively, adding, "If we have purse strings, we can control men and things we could not do without." Lehi-

OREGON.

Advices from Portland.

PORTLAND, April 6th.—Five freight cars heavily loaded, jumped the track to-night at Wilbur, Douglas county, Oregon. Fortunately no one was injured, but the cars

Mrs. S. Walker, wife of John Walker, a prominent, committed suicide to-day by hammering herself in the head. The woman is very large, powerful, vicious and quarrelsome, and has a violent temper.

She frequently met her husband, who was a tall, weakly man. Last evening the neighbors had a quarrel about money matters. This morning the quarrel was renewed between the woman struck the man across the face a heavy blow, then ran into her bedroom, picked up a pistol and fired two shots through the door at her husband, who vainly endeavored to pacify her, both

Another man attempted to take the pistol from her, but failed. She then drove him from the house at the point of the weapon and putting the revolver to her head blew out her brains. She died instantly. The deceased was aged 25 years, and had the reputation of being "a holy terror." An inquest will be held to-morrow.

A fire here to-night partially destroyed

Early this morning Jas. Reeves shot and fatally wounded J. Frazer at Astoria. It appears that Reeves was intoxicated and was endeavoring to get him to drink. In a drunken passion Reeves drew a pistol and shot his companion in the side. Frazer was removed to the hospital. There is much internal hemorrhage, and his condition is very serious.

every is deemed impossible. Reeves is a steady. The parties have always been on good terms. Reeves is peaceable and industrious when sober. He is overwhelmed with grief at the tragedy.

